

Doll Scale Work-Along Worksheet

By Allison Hernandez

1. Nendoroids are typically considered to be  $\frac{1}{12}$  scale. How tall would the Nendoroid Harry Potter be in real life at this scale?

2. Pukifée Jude and Atelier Momoni Melo are considered to be  $\frac{1}{8}$  scale. How tall would Jude and Melo be in real life at this scale?

3. Barbie and Blythe are considered to be  $\frac{1}{6}$  scale. How tall would Barbie and Blythe be in real life?

4. Robert Tonner's Ellowyn Wilde and Kathe Kruse's La Bella Aimee are considered to be  $\frac{1}{4}$  scale. How tall would Ellowyn and Aimee be in real life?

5. Smart Doll Justice and Les Belles de Jour Siren are considered to be  $\frac{1}{3}$  scale. How tall would Justice and Siren be in real life?

6. Kathe Kruse Kruselings Joy is 9 inches tall. If she were a real girl between the ages of 8-10, what scale would make sense for her?

7. Paola Reina Las Amigas Carla is 13 inches tall. If she were a real girl between the ages of 10-12, what scale would make sense for her?

8. Ruby Red Fashion Friends Maya is 14.5 inches tall. If she was a real girl between the ages of 12-14, what scale would make sense for her?

9. American Girl Courtney is 18 inches tall. If she was a real girl between the ages of 8-10, what scale would make sense for her?

Thank you for watching and participating! To learn more about any of the dolls featured in this lesson, please check out my YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/c/munecasoupeesanddolls

